Terminology and origin. the term "spiritual" is derived from "spiritual song", from the king james bible's translation of ephesians 5:19, which says, "speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the lord." slave songs of the united states, the first major collection of negro spirituals, was published in 1867. John wesley work, jr., may not have originated the negro spiritual "go, tell it on the mountain," but he can take credit for the fact that we still sing it every christmas. "america" is a song from the musical west side story. stephen sondheim wrote the lyrics and leonard bernstein composed the music.
