Chapter 1 : Sweets Homebuilding Remodeling 1993 Catalog File

In the early 1950s, st. louis began construction of the pruit-igoe towers and other high-rises to house the african american poor. pruit had been intended for blacks and igoe for whites, but by the time the projects opened in 1955–56, few whites were still interested in urban public housing; there were so many inexpensive options for them in south st. louis and in the suburbs.
